Text Page

This page is a description of how this style of person is typically seen by others. Read the text as such and use it to develop an overall picture. In evaluating specific sentences, it is important to consider person's conscious ability to adapt behavior. In other words, while the text describes the typical behavior for individuals with this style, a person certainly can modify behavior to fit the needs of a particular situation or individual(s). Also, you may have already addressed the development areas by learning new skills.

Attributes

Extroverted, sociable, social, active, alert, idea generator, purposeful, ambitious, seeks new contacts, exact, follows instructions, inspiring.

Motivators

Karolina is motivated by opportunities to work with people in a variety of situations. She likes to inspire people and enjoys being popular. She wants to proceed independently in her work but does not mind if she is instructed.

Tries to Avoid

Although Karolina would like to work in an established organization, she is not always a teamworker. Karolina is much better in tasks for which she is responsible and where success demands influencing people. She tries to avoid routine, repetitive tasks.

Ideal Supervisor

The supervisor should always provide her with something new. The supervisor has to demand directness from her and should also prevent her from launching into new ideas when the work is already in process.

Communication Style

She has no problem approaching people and discussing any subject. As she is a strongly emotional person, she may have difficulty hiding her bad mood even when she wants to. She is able to sell if reminded of the importance of the final results.

Decision-making

Basically she is good at making decisions. She is not very traditional, so can create new ideas. Sometimes she may hesitate and change her decision as she faces a conflict between wanting to make quick and at the same time the best (most correct) decisions. Complicated or unpleasant decisions that concern people demand more time to ponder.
